

CALL FOR WORK

December 10th 2016 - January 10th 2017

STANDARD DEVIATION, a digital zine on queer art, science, and theory, is looking for meaningful reactions to the present political climate— strategies, activism, and reflections on queer existence in 2016/2017. Our interest is in novel dialogues about queerness and intersectional queer thought.

MEDIA

- TEXT (poetry, prose, scripts, essays, articles, etc.)
- IMAGE (photography, painting, drawing, etc.)
- VIDEO (performance documentation, short film, etc.)
- AUDIO (music, interviews, sound art, etc.)

PROCEDURE

To have your work considered for Standard Deviation's second issue, email std.d3v@gmail.com. Include the term «Application» in the subject line, a short description or abstract of your work in the body of the email, and the work to be reviewed either as an attachment or accessible via link. Works recieved after January 10th will be considered for the fall issue.
